

Monday Memo

■ January 11, 2016

January 11:	Spring semester begins
January 13:	Curley Center Information Session , 6 p.m., Carnegie Cinema
January 18:	Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday
January 25:	College Involvement Fair , 4 p.m., Alumni Hall
February 3:	Page Center Keynote Lecture: Jennifer Stapper , 7 p.m., Freeman Auditorium
February 26:	Undergraduate Research Symposium , 6 p.m., Carnegie Cinema
March 6-12:	Spring Break
March 8:	Toss it, Shred it, Trash it!
March 16:	Oweida Lecture: David Folkenflik , 7 p.m., Kern Auditorium
March 18:	JobExpo.Comm(unications) , 9 a.m., Alumni Hall
April 8:	Faculty / Staff Awards Program , 3 p.m., Nittany Lion Inn
April 19:	Student Awards Program , 5 p.m., Nittany Lion Inn

Announcement

All faculty should send a copy of their spring semester syllabi to BB Muré by January 15.

Faculty & Staff News

John Affleck was a guest on “In the Game,” the weekly sports show on National Public Radio.

Alex Fattal published an opinion piece in the Huffington Post about the Colombian peace process.

Michelle Rodino-Colocino has been appointed to the editorial board of Women’s Studies in Communication.

Student Achievements

Two students received Dow Jones Newspaper Fund editing scholarships for this summer. Garrett Ross will be an intern at the New York Times and Tyler DiSalle will be an intern at the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Alumni

John McGonigal ('15 Journ) is a sports writer at the Centre Daily Times.

Erin Peretti ('15 Ad/PR) is an assistant strategist at Omnicom Media Group.

Anna Wildman ('15 Ad/PR) is a project manager at Tag Worldwide.