

Monday Memo

■ October 3, 2016

October 3:	“Breaking in to the Sports Industry,” 6 p.m., Foster Auditorium
October 4:	Faculty Meeting, 4 p.m., Nittany Lion Inn
October 9:	Donor Dinner, 5 p.m., Penn Stater
October 17:	“A Conversation with Rob King,” 6 p.m., Bryce Jordan Center Founders Room
October 19-20:	Foster-Foreman Conference of Distinguished Writers <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Kevin Merida, The Undefeated editor-in-chief, Wednesday, 7 p.m., Schwab Auditorium• Dr. Elisabeth Rosenthal, Kaiser Health News editor-in-chief, Thursday, 10:35 a.m. (note new time), HUB Auditorium
October 25:	“Spotlight” Screening, 7 p.m., State Theatre
October 28:	Pockrass Lecture: Dannagal G. Young, 1 p.m., Foster Auditorium
November 1:	Carol Guzy, Washington Post photojournalist, 7 p.m., HUB Auditorium
November 4:	Graduate Faculty Meeting, 4 p.m., 24 Carnegie
November 13:	Go Freelance!
November 15:	Post-Election Panel, 7 p.m., HUB Auditorium

Faculty & Staff News

Yang Bai, Rob Frieden and Krishna Jayakar presented papers at the Telecommunications Policy Research Conference at George Mason University. Yang Bai was honored for the best student paper.

Shyam Sundar gave an invited talk, “Media Effects in the Age of Interactivity,” at West Virginia University’s Reed College of Media.

Ben Cramer was interviewed for a story in Pacific Standard magazine about land usage by telecommunications firms.

The Huffington Post published a review of “Discovering Gloria,” the documentary by Boaz Dvir. The review originally ran in the education blog, Curmudgucation.

Alumni

Ryan Martin ('10 Ad/PR) is an account director at Saatchi & Saatchi.

Greg Pickel ('15 Journ) is a sportswriter with the Patriot-News in Harrisburg