
WILL YURMAN

Will Yurman has taught and worked as a visual storyteller for nearly three decades. His work has brought him to places around the world including documenting the Palestinian-Israeli peace process. His year-long project Not Forgotten: Portraits of Life and Death in Rochester documented the lives of every homicide victim in Rochester, NY over the course of a year.

EXPERIENCE

ASSISTANT TEACHING PROFESSOR, THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

2011 - PRESENT

Assistant Teaching Professor in the Journalism Department teaching photojournalism and multimedia. Other responsibilities include supporting the Keystone Multimedia Workshop, organizing the Short Doc Workshop, and lead faculty for the World Campus Digital Multimedia Degree.

PHOTOGRAPHER & MULTIMEDIA PRODUCER, ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT &
CHRONICLE - 2000-2010

Staff photographer and multimedia producer for the daily newspaper and website. Produced both daily and long-term projects in print and online.

FREELANCE EDITORIAL PHOTOGRAPHER - JERUSALEM 1995-1998

Newspaper and magazine photographer in Israel and the Palestinian territories. Clients included: The Miami Herald, Chicago Tribune, Baltimore Sun, Knight-Ridder, Cox Newspapers, Washington Post and The Sydney Morning Herald. Represented by Gamma Liaison - work appeared in Newsweek, Time, Business Week, U.S. News & World Report, L'Express and Le Point.

AWARDS & EXHIBITS

Awards & Exhibits

- Official Selection 2015 Mumbai International Film Festival for "This Time Would Be Different"
- Pictures of the Year International competition 2003, 2007 Multimedia awards.
- Best of Photojournalism 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2007 - Multimedia and 2006 2nd place News Picture Story - stills.
- George Eastman House 2008 solo exhibit - Not Forgotten: Portraits of Life and Death in Rochester.