College of Communications

Overview

- $30 m. from Don Bellisario
 - $5 m.: Scholarships and awards (need-based; military preference)
 - $5 m.: Facilities (Willard)
 - $20 m.: Endowment for programs/faculty
- $20 m. investment from the University
 - $5 m. in needs-based scholarships
 - $15 m. in Willard Renovation

Three big areas

- Facilities: Move from Innovation Park to ground and first floors in Willard Hall.
- Faculty and programs: Support for innovative, undergraduate-focused programs at UP and in LA/DC, along with professorships and chairs.
- Scholarships and awards: for undergraduate students.

The fine print

- We can't spend what we don't have.
- Most of this is endowment. (In terms of spending: Think a lot smaller.)
- Faculty professorships and chairs cost $$.
- Separate guidelines are required for all faculty/chair appointments and for program investments.
- Space: We're still not all together.

Willard

- Ground and first floors
- Media facilities at Innovation Park will be moved
- Upgrades are needed on the building; the space will be completely redesigned
- Current students won't see the new space.

Timeline for Willard

- Summer '17: University groundwork and approvals
- August '17: Facility tours
- Fall '17: Architect approval by Board of Trustees
- Spring '18: Design begins in earnest
- December '18: Construction begins
- May 2020: Finally! We move in.

What I don't know.

- When the money will flow in.
- What the University's "Open Doors" scholarship guidelines are, exactly.
