

Before completing my undergraduate year at Penn State University. An Internship will prepare me for the professional setting. I will learn more things working on internship than retail. Working on internship will give me a taste of being in a professional environment. Working on internship will guide and advance my skill set for the position.