

I desire an internship because I would love to get some real-world experience. An internship is the next chapter in my college career. When I secure one it will put me ahead of the curve of other prospective students when it's time to be able to lock down a job after I graduate. This is why I would love to have an internship.