

Gabrielle Baker

I am eager to get internship experience and further my professional career. I desire an internship to gain new knowledge in my field and practice what I love doing. I hope this internship experience will provide me with valuable skills and help me discover myself and my passion. My career aspirations include working in the film industry as a director or any production position. My goal in life is to be happy doing what I love.