

I desire an internship in order to grow. With an internship, I can make myself more of a valuable asset, as well as provide unique value to a company. I aspire to have my own business while continuing with videography. I want to focus on brand management with videography, logo creation, breaking down mass analytics, etc. I hope to get experience implementing videography under a media company's vision.