

I am in search of an internship to improve my videography and video editing skills and add to my collaborative work experience. From the internship, I hope to gain experience in documentary filmmaking and knowledge of other editing softwares. I also hope to improve my communications skills by collaborating on projects. Through this opportunity, I hope to expand my network of connections. During my career, I aspire to be heavily involved in the narrative and documentary filmmaking process.