

Caitlin Shilen

I desire a internship because I want to learn more about what it is really like to work for a company with hands on experience. I got a internship with Devon Review as a social media intern. I would like to graduate working as a Social Media Manger for a big company. I hope to get out of this internship more media skills, marketing and overall grow as a person through experience. Learning to become more professional and learn more about this industry.