

I desire an internship because I would like an opportunity to apply and refine my skills. I have learned broadcasting, writing and production skills both in the classroom and through extracurriculars. I hope to gain journalism experience in a professional setting through an internship. My career aspirations are to work as a play-by-play announcer, studio host, podcast host, beat writer and / or reporter. Obtaining an internship will continue my development as a sports broadcaster while refining my skills.