As an aspiring reporter and communications professional, I believe an internship with the media/entertainment and the news industry will be beneficial in helping me make the most out of my curriculum. Specifically, this summer internship with one of the industry's leaders — NBCUniversal — will not only help me put my skills and knowledge to use, but it will also hone my skillset in investigative/feature reporting, interviewing, AP style, SEO, and copyediting. After my intended graduation in December, I hope to kickstart my career as an on-air talent for a local station covering politics, breaking news, and economics. In 10-20 years, I hope to become an international correspondent covering world news, international policies, and technology. I believe this summer internship with NBCUniversal working with the National Digital Team will help steer my career path in the right direction.
