

I desire an internship to narrow down my career interests. I hope to gain a better understanding of whether I want to work for an agency or in-house PR and/or consumer-goods or B2B. My career aspirations are to work in Public Relations either for a large agency or in-house company. I believe with this internship I will be able to know what industry of Public Relations I enjoy the most.