

Kaja McCartney

Internship Statement

I would be so grateful for an internship, especially in the field of communications. I hope to gain lots of knowledge and experience from it. I have a wide range of interests which include advertising, sales, marketing, hospitality, real estate, and event planning. A communications internship would cover a lot of that. Any opportunity to learn anything about even one of my interests, is a great one.