

Five Sentence Statement

I see internships as a way to get real-world experience while still in my academic college career. By interning at C-Net, I can gain familiarity with filming and other production aspects. Gaining experience within these fields of video work will allow me to familiarize myself with my future career aspirations. I view my major as a significant generalization of the world of video production and management. The use of internships as a stepping stone can further me in what role I want to have in the world of production.