

PennState
Donald P. Bellisario
College of Communications

FILM PRODUCTION

Students in the film production major develop an understanding of all aspects of the film and video production process while exploring narrative, documentary and alternative forms. Utilizing state-of-the-art equipment, students gain hands-on experience as writers, producers, directors, cinematographers and editors. The program emphasizes personal expression and collaboration along with the technical and creative skills needed to succeed in a career in media production.

Faculty members in the film production major are working professionals who emphasize critical thinking and the development of ideas while offering students in-depth study of writing and production. Students graduate with a skill set that prepares them for a dynamic work environment in a highly competitive industry.

Intern & Work Opportunities

NBCUniversal

ESPN

Personal Qualifications

- ✓ Able to visualize and turn your vision into a story
- ✓ Able to work in a team
- ✓ Able to think quickly on your feet, deal with change
- ✓ Appreciation and understanding of pop culture
- ✓ Creative
- ✓ Curious and inquisitive
- ✓ Enjoy telling stories

Course Topics

- Art of Cinema
- Cinematography and Editing Techniques
- Directing Workshop
- Film Theory and History
- Documentary / Narrative
- Intro to Film Production
- Post-Production Techniques
- Screenwriting

Career Possibilities

- Advertising Agencies
- Cable, TV Networks
- Corporate Communications
- Independent Production Companies
- Foundations, Higher Education
- Motion Picture Companies

Job Titles

- Cinematographer
- Director
- Editor
- Producer
- Production Assistant
- Sound Mixer
- Writer